Dear Sir or Madam:

Please accept this letter of interest for the _____ position. I am a college graduate who majored in Mathematics, and minored Computer Information Science at University of Oregon. Since the company demands the workers who can pioneer both not only technically but also interpersonally with meticulous care, I stand ready to assist for service.

As a part of the curriculum in university, I have completed thorough background in mathematics such as statistics, linear algebra, and numerical analysis, and challenged in the areas of researching mathematics theories in algorithms, implementing with diverse programming languages. One of the interesting research that have conducted with fellow students was demonstrating numerical analysis on Jacobi/Gauss Seidel's methods. We collaborated to demonstrate various characteristics of each method into simplified aspects to develop algorithm, and to assess which algorithm ensures efficient model. Altering working environment reinforced me to acquire strong interpretations in assorted technology foundation such as software and frameworks in-depth to illustrate, delegate and execute projects.

Besides experience in university, pursuing careers as an IT technician enabled to learn extensive areas of computer by dealing with consumers' needs. Satisfying their demand reinforced me to research and troubleshoot substantial computer problems, to which allowed me perceive myself to concentrate on data related studies utilizing competent software and frameworks. Experience in IT field let me to inquire more about analyzing data set, leading to take online courses to educate myself such as SQL, and Pandas. While working with clients, I considered visualization is the most crucial to persuade, leading me to concentrate on media using software like Photoshop, Illustrator, Final Cut Pro for efficient comprehension. Throughout the studying data, I emphasized on combining technical and representing skills, which would maximize satisfaction for clients.

Thanks to these experiences, I learned how to collaborate one another to accomplish same goal as a team. I strongly esteem the invaluable experience would serve as a definite asset as a _____. I appreciate you for your time and consideration for reviewing this letter and my credentials. I stand ready to assist our community.
